Garden City Boys Serve as Pages for Senate President Steve Morris

TOPEKA – On Wednesday, Feb. 20th, Senate President Steve Morris (R-Hugoton) welcomed Garden City students Tyler Cloud and John Regier as pages for the day in the Kansas Senate.

Senate President Morris said, “It was a great pleasure to have these six students with me today. I hope this visit to the state capitol and the Kansas Senate will remain in their memories and encourage them to become involved in government by voting, paying attention to the issues of their day and making their opinions heard. Perhaps one of them will seek elected office someday.”

Tyler is the son of David Cloud; his grandparents Cliff and Pat Mayo brought the boys to Topeka for this opportunity. John is the son of Jenny Regier. Both boys are fifth graders at Charles O. Stones Elementary School.

Pages assist elected officials and staff by running errands, putting together mailings, and other necessary duties. Pages should be at least 12 years of age; each page is paid $3.00 for serving the legislature for a day.
